3 June 1963

1. Matt Baird telephoned to reassure me that the Office of Training was not encouraging DD/P to protest OTR's move from the building. He also said that he thought they would have the figures on overtime, etc., in support of increased manpower at [REDACTED] by the end of this week. 25X1A6a

2. I advised [REDACTED] that General Gibbs, who is to be the new Chief Signal Officer of the Army, was a classmate of mine and that I would be glad to invite him over for lunch and a briefing whenever he and [REDACTED] 25X1A9a
[REDACTED] wanted to do this.

8. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning the [REDACTED] case 25X1A9a was discussed again. The Director emphasized that he wanted a very accurate record kept of our participation in this case. (I passed this on to Bob Bannerman.)

9. I asked Bob Bannerman to make sure that a consultant contract was ready for Shef Edwards to sign when he retires and also told him that I would look with favor upon using Shef in an independent contractor capacity with a [REDACTED]

10. I talked to John Tietjen again about [REDACTED] Unless something happens during this session of Congress to increase the pay scale considerably, 25X1A9a it appears likely that [REDACTED] will be leaving us. (I want to arrange a meeting with General Carter next week to discuss this briefly.) 25X1A9a

11. I had a long talk with John Tietjen about [REDACTED] While John reserves judgment until he has examined [REDACTED] as soon as the latter returns to duty, 25X1A9a assuming that there is relatively little change in his condition Tietjen's position is about as follows: He can't disqualify [REDACTED] for CIA employment. If so, he 25X1A9a would have to disqualify everyone else who has had a similar experience-- [REDACTED] for example. On the other hand, he believes that [REDACTED] 25X1A9a [REDACTED] would be better off if he would retire and pursue some other occupation, and he thinks there is no doubt whatever that his application for disability retirement would be approved by the Civil Service Commission. On the other hand, he is equally convinced that his involuntary retirement would not be upheld by the Commission.
